

Warisaliganj (Nawada)

A Senior Secondary School, Affiliated to CBSE, New Delhi

Director's Message

Vivekanand Public School was established at Warisaliganj with a pioneer zeal and selfless enthusiasms in year 2000 to promote education of this region and adjoining the villages of this area. It is a grass root institution of this area. Prior to this, students were facing a lot of problems in getting a quality education. Private schools of this area are not imparting praise worthy education, but in contrary, Vivekanand Public School, a fully equipped school provides a right type of education. In fact, it cares about overall development of students in homely environment with ideal conditions.

Mr. S.N. Singh

Principal's Message

The school is a temple of education, where the raw handed children are framed into knowledge, skill, work experience behaviour and all roots of learning essential for futuristic approach of a child and a nation. The good students are the worth for a family, society and subsequently for a nation. Our school provides such a type of education so as the children could become multifaceted, responsible, which we perform through all round development programme within CBSE curriculum provided. Our endeavour is to develop each one of students so that they would perform excellent when they go to the service of the country. For this, we have developed infrastructure.

Mr. Parmanand
